

I strongly agree with the do not call action. I am tired of sitting down to spend time with my children and being constantly interrupted by useless phone calls. If I am interested in a company or particular product, I will contact the company, they do not need to waste their time calling my house. I do not appreciate the calls, nor have I ever found any of the useful or interesting to me. Please allow the do not call list to remain in effect.